

Descendants of George Balth. NP Eisenhauer

Generation No. 2

1. GEORGE BALTH. NP¹ EISENHAUER He married MARIAM PROPSTIN.

Child of GEORGE EISENHAUER and MARIAM PROPSTIN is:

2. i. JOSEPH E.² EISENHUER, b. Abt. 1787, Birkenhoerdt, Germany ?; d. Unknown.

Generation No. 3

2. JOSEPH E.² EISENHUER (GEORGE BALTH. NP¹ EISENHAUER) was born Abt. 1787 in Birkenhoerdt, Germany ?, and died Unknown. He married MARGARETHA MILLICKER April 13, 1818. She died Abt. 1841 in Prob. Birkenhoerdt, Germany.

Notes for JOSEPH E. EISENHUER:

From the 1840's to the 1880's, 4 million germans came to America to escape depression, political unrest and unemployment.

1993, i know nothing yet about this man except his name. He was in the Sacred Heart death/funeral book as the father of George Jacob, I have collected a bit of information which I'll include here. Eisenhauers had come to America since quite early and they can be found many places. Joseph E> Eisenhauer was located in the state of Bayern, County of Pfalz, town of Birkenhoerdt, and a Roman Catholic, father of ten children, who were born between 1819 and 1841. Who knows, I may even find out much more in the Mormon records. As of now, I believe he had a brother John, married to Catharinae Engel, who was in the same location, having children 1828 to 1847. Our Joseph named a son John in 1826. Our Joseph named son Balthassar in 1824 and the presumed brother named a son the same unusual name in 1830. The information will change from printing to printing for as I find more or draw different conclusions, the old will be erased and new information put in, so each of you could have different information. I will try to date things so you will know what is the latest.

Born note:

I am guessing on this date, that would have made him 24 at his 1819 marriage.

Notes for MARGARETHA MILLICKER:

Individual note:

Children of JOSEPH EISENHUER and MARGARETHA MILLICKER are:

- i. GEORGE MICHAEL³ EISENHAUER, b. Abt. May 1819, Bayern, Pfalz, or Birkenhoerdt, Ger.; d. Unknown; m. UNKNOWN, February 1834.

Notes for GEORGE MICHAEL EISENHAUER:

Individual note:

I do not believe George Michael came to the US as he had a large family at the time of Goerge jacob, his brother came.

- ii. JOESPH EISENHAUER, b. Abt. 1821; d. Abt. December 11, 1875.

Notes for JOESPH EISENHAUER:

Individual note:

Joseph was in Civil War, wounded at Battle of Shiloh, lost an arm or leg, was in Co. D. 9th III, Inf. Vol. He was in National Military Home in Dec 1875, in serious condition. War history taken from a St. Clair Co. book on Civil War veterans.

Not too much is known about Joseph. Family tradition said only that he had lost a limb in the Civil War. Records in "History of St. Clair Co., Illinois," 1881, by Brink, McDonough and Co., Philadelphia, has Joseph listed on pages 312, left column, and 134, as being wounded. On page 134, he is shown as mustered out, but no date. He was in Co. D. Karl H> Eisenhauer only said of him that he was from Ohio.

A letter from Ohio concerning Joseph Eisenhauer:

"National Military Home Montgomery County Ohio Mr. Jacob Eisenhauer, DuQuoin, Ill. About your brother Joseph, This afternoon at 2 o'clock we took your brother from our Baracke (barracks) #24 to the hospital. For the last few days his health has taken a turn for the worse, and we don't hold much hope for a recovery. I am so sorry that we could not do more for him.

MARRIAGE NOTES? SOURCES

Marriage note:

Witnesses to Adam and Catharine`s marriage were Jacob & wife Anna Maria, church marriage performed Dec. 27, 1883. They had been married in a civil ceremony in 1868.

HUSBAND--Adam John Eisenhauer:

Individual note:

The name is Joannes Adamus in the record. Since that is Latin the name would be John Adam. I think these old timers changed first and middle names around to suit themselves. Adam lived across the railroad, south of Matthews. In courthouse records, his mother`s name is given as Catherine, other records say Margaretha.

Karl told the story of Adam. Adam was in the German army and one of his duties was to clean the horses hooves after they came in from the parade ground. As he was cleaning one horse, it kicked at him and instinctively he flung out his arm, stabbing the horse fatally. Knowing he would probably be hung for this, he deserted from the army and came to America. I do not know if all of the men came then. There is more which needs to be researched. (Found later, Jan. 11 1997) According to an interview with Adam`s son George of Vergennes--"Adam came to the United States some time after George Jacob. Adam had to finish a term in the army. He served some time, and then a rich family hired him to take their son`s place. Adam resented the rich for being able to buy their way out of the army. When he came to the U.S. he landed in New York, just as his brother George Jacob had before him.

Christened note:

There is a difference in where Adam`s family says he was born and the Mormon German records, but they were close.
